

Energy 100 Boxing Glove - Red/Wht

Adidas Energy Range ENERGY100 gloves made of resistant PU material. Newly-developed, high-compression IMF one-piece preformed foam provides unique and innovative construction: the glove is made of one full and unique piece, giving the boxer the feel of a perfect tightening of both the fist and the wrist, during training. The velcro strap closing system provides firm closing and appropriate adjustment at wrist, with a dual elastic and velcro strap system. Stylish printed adidas logo and three vertical stripes. The construction of this glove has been designed to optimize the energy performance and the movements of a boxer.
